

Summer Exchange program (Internship Program)
(International Program)
New Program 2023

Name of institution	Phetchaburi Rajabhat University
Faculty/Department	PBRU International
Name of degree
Full name:	Certificate of Internship program (Public Health Practicum)
Abbreviation:	Certificate of Internship program (Public Health Practicum)

Curriculum characteristics

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1) Curriculum type/model: | Internship program |
| 2) Language: | English |
| 3) Recruitment: | Thai and international students |
| 4) Cooperative with other universities: | Only PBRU program |
| 5) Degrees offered to the graduates: | Certificate |

Overview

The Summer Exchange Program in Public Health trains students in fieldwork activities, students shall be made more aware of the real-life health issues affecting the community. Examination of communities in order to effectively plan, prepare and apply solutions to address community health concerns. Study a generalist health science degree and build a solid foundation in human health. This program has been designed to give you crucial insights into the numerous social, psychological, environmental, technological, cultural and political factors that are affecting the health of society.

Objectives of the program

- 1) Express altruistic personalities, moral and ethical standards
- 2) Demonstrate an understanding of key issues relating to public health terms
- 3) Demonstrate a leadership and management in various public health situations and to be able to work with those resources in a critically self-aware way

Duration of Study

The duration of study is 2 months

Registration

Students must register as an Exchange student

Academic System

1. Summer Exchange Program (Trainee Program)

Language

English is used in the program

Qualifications of internship students

1. Student must have GPAX 2.00 prior to the internship
2. Studying for bachelor of public health degree or related
3. Student have not diagnosed with infectious disease or being incapable which caused difficulty in attending the internship
4. Student have not been punished according to a student's discipline due to misbehavior with the study suspension penalty or more

Program Outline

Training in public health service facilities in health promotion, disease prevention, medical treatment and rehabilitation. Study health conditions and problems in the community. Analytical health problems community. Organize a project to solve problems. Prepare reports and present training experience results.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)

PLO 1: Demonstrate morality, ethics, and code of conduct for the community public health profession. Be a leader in health, Public consciousness, social development and respect for human rights.

PLO 2: Able to communicate health knowledge and related public health subjects effectively

PLO 3: Analyze health and public health data to identify problems at the individual, family and community level on evidence based.

PLO 4: Able to apply public health knowledge to solve public health problems. Diagnose the community, plan and implement solutions to public health problems at the individual, family and community.

Five-Year-Plan for recruitment and graduate of students

Number of Students	Academic Year
	2023	2024	2025	2026	2027
New Student	20	20	20	20	20
Total	20	20	20	20	20
Expected to Graduate	-	20	20	20	20

Academic Evaluation

Letter grades, without credit points, can be assigned as follows:

Symbols	Meaning
S	Satisfactory
U	Unsatisfactory